Modern Nausicaas On The Seashore Bathing Costumes In Two Classes

The "Wets" and "Drys"

London, Sept. 15. Nausicaa is one of the most charming heroines ever produced by a world of men and women who nearly all adore young girls. If Keats had seen her on the Grecian Urn we should have had an ode about her. If the Sitwells or T. S. Eliot ever do anything so ordinary as to go to a seaside resort we are in danger of having one yet. For this is Nausicaa's year, without a doubt. She and her maidens disport themselves on the seashore as never before. It is true that they do almost everything there except play ball, but otherwise there is, in modern speech, "no difference soze ude notice." Except in the matter of clothing. The B.B.C. would increase the public debt to it if they could give us a little heart-to-heart chat on the matter of beach and bathing dress between Nausicaa, and that other world-sweetheart, Rosalind. Atalanta might try to cut in, but does anybody really love Atalanta? She was so very stupid; the invention of some elderly Greek Gentleman who did not think women should vote, and deplored the fact that he had a niece who could run.

Leezie Lindsay.
No, the third should be Leezie Lindsay, who killed her skirts of green satin, and killed them up to the knee, entirely in order to be aff w! Lord Ronald MacDonald, his pride and his darling to be. You could have shaken bare all the trees of the Hesperides before that lass without diverting her attention.

Envy would undoubtedly appear, in however sweetened a form, in that consultation. Dear Leezie, however well killed, must have hated the green satin, even if Lord Ronald was duly appreciative of the knee, as they galloped away from his doubtless loathsome family. Atalanta, if the sculptors tell the truth, was cluttered up with what an angry American senator once called, in a campaign against long street-dresses, "yards of pendant dry-goods." Nausicaa and her maidens were similarly hampered, their only choice being restriction round the legs or fearful bolstering above the waist. And Rosalind, ashamed of her doublet and horse, must wonder indeed at girls who are not ashamed of having neither, nor even of the limbs they don't clothe, in them.

Wool On The Beach.
And they don't. Even although of three summers on their heads are quite gone. You'll wear wool, and good thick wool, too, preferably a British fancy weave that keeps its shape, or else be a rebel. Nausicaa would not like that; she wore what her girls and all other girls of her time wore; and though, poor little noodle, that if she had not done so Ulysses would never have looked at her.

A Natural Trimming.
Well, he has more to look at now. The trousers, taking them by and large, which they are, and over-looking the division, are very ample envelopes. Above them there are no Greek folds, and no tunic, but a triangle of striped woollen, buttoning behind the waist at the back with two shining rustless buttons, and fastening behind the neck with the same, on a narrow band attached to the apex (which is worn in front). A possible narrow hiatus between trousers and backless sun-suit will be looked upon in the nature of a natural trimming.

It is, of course, absolutely necessary for Nausicaa, model 1932, to adjust the cut of her sea-going or beach-browsing suit to the cut of her evening dress. There used to be a terrible story of a lady who had washed for a square and worn a V; she cannot feel as dreadful as does the Libb nymph who has burned for India and worn South America. This back-burning is a very difficult job; it needs its expert cartographers.

The Defeat of Red.
Where Nausicaa is in the right, her endless charm apart, and her doubts taken into consideration, is on the colour business. White is the flag that flutters from the masthead—no, that wraps the pole. White, white, and white. The colour schemes of the early season, and of last year are over. You can have striped tops to plain trousers, but you are dandier in white. Or, at any rate, in a plain colour. Royal blue, perhaps. Or gold, bright or old. The colouring may be suited to the complexion at will, but there is one thing sure: Red is finished. Absolutely finished. Dye it, lose it, sell it, give it away, but do not wear it.

Ulysses is present, with such a number of attendant young men as must have required at least the Aquitania, if not the Bremen, for accommodation, nobody is killed, for there is nothing to kill. You can't kill a trouser, even when it is fully wide enough to make it certain that you leave socks to the tennis-court and stockings to aunts. Still less can you kill one of those things you go into the sea with, unless you stay out of the sea with it. This is not a reference to Ulysses or any of his young men, but to the mailot, which, like the Americans, is definitely divided into two classes, the wet and the dry. In the first you go into the sea; in the other, or Prohibition bathing-suit, you remain dry—until the beachwaiter brings the cocktails round, of course.

And it is of wool. In the pre-historic or bad old days, it was of cretonne or even chintz. Those fashions of holidays with the frock red.

KNITWEAR CHANGES ITS GUISE.

But Has Not Lost Public Favour.

Knitwear has changed its guise somewhat, but has lost nothing in public favour. Woven woollies will be as popular in the Autumn and Winter seasons as cotton has been during the summer.

There will be wools of all kinds and sorts, sheer, lacy and soft ones for practical daytime wear. One weave is known as "flecked" implying that its surface is broken by an uneven dot in the weave. Buttons will play a large part in decoration.

The new woollens will take up no more room under a coat than would a silk dress; no longer need one associate stuffy clumsiness with a woollen dress.

MENU SUGGESTIONS FOR TO-MORROW.

TIFFIN
Smoked Finnan Haddock
Cold Roast Pork
Beetroot and Onion Salad
Potatoes Riced
Apple Charlotte
DINNER
Potage a la Royale
Mixed Grill
Potato Shavings
French Beans
Coffee and Nut Ice-cream

(Continued from previous column). For smart trotteurs and coat dresses there are very lightweight woollens with a crepe-like finish. An exceedingly smart sheer wool comes with a diagonal stripe. A new York house has cleverly employed it in brown and white and with it is worn a short jacket in plain matching material.

LACTOGEN

easy for Baby to digest

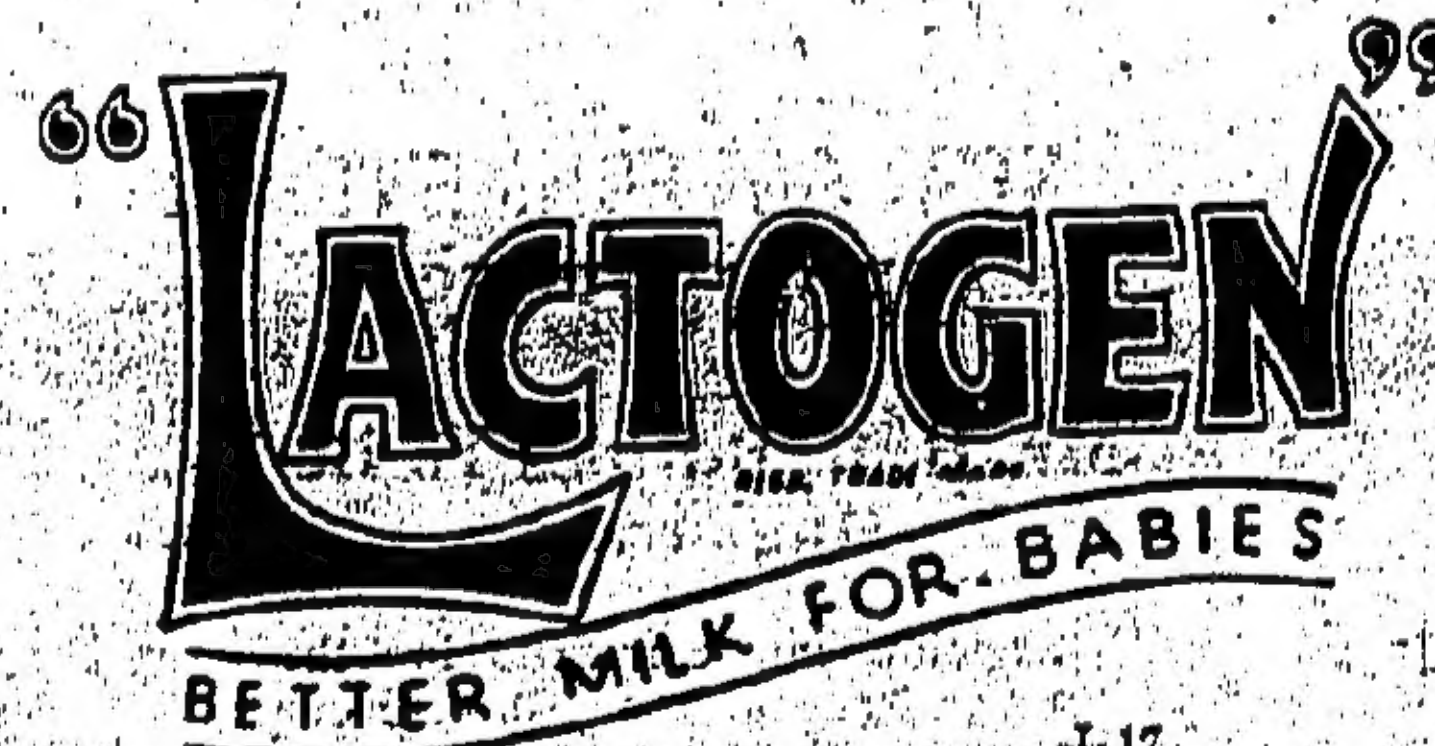

Happy contentment when Baby is fed on Lactogen. It does him good—and he seems to know it. He's happy and satisfied.

Lactogen is pure, fresh, full-cream milk, with extra cream and natural milk sugar added, dried and made, in all important respects, exactly like breast milk.

One Lactogen process modifies the casein of the fresh milk so that it forms a fine flaky curd in Baby's stomach, just as does breast milk. Another process breaks up the fat into very tiny globules, even finer than in breast milk. The Lactogen processes preserve unchanged the valuable mineral and vitamin content of the fresh milk.

Lactogen may be given as an alternative feed or as Baby's sole food. Even the most delicate babies thrive on Lactogen from birth.

"Lactogen is the better milk for Baby," Doctors and Nurses have proved in thousands of cases. That's why they now tell Mothers "Put Baby on Lactogen."

JAPANESE SHIFT TO MEET ATTACKS.

Volunteers Proving Real Menace.

Peiping, Sept. 14.

It is learnt that since he took up his duties as Commander-in-Chief of the Japanese Army in Manchuria, General Muto has made several changes of garrison posts. The 1st Japanese Cavalry Brigade, hitherto stationed in North Manchuria, which has been engaged in severe fighting with the troops under General Ma Chan-shan, has been transferred to the so-called Mukden-Shanhai-kwan Railway. The 29th infantry regiment has been shifted from Shenyang (Mukden) to the Shenyang-Hailung Railway. Another regiment garrisoning the Sipingkai-Taonan Railway has been moved back to Shenyang to guard the Arsenal.

Transfer of the brigade under Major-General Suzuki from the Chinchow-Chiaoyang branch Railway to the Tahushan-Tungliaw Railway and Kowpangtse has been effected. In each station between Chinchow and Shanhai-kwan an emergency train is posted.

The formidable defence works built along the Shenyang-Hailung, Tahushan-Tungliaw and Mukden-Shanhai-kwan Railways, indicate the gravity of the Volunteer menace to the Japanese.

One Japanese troop train was derailed by Volunteers at Hsingcheng on the 12th. Besides killing a score of the Japanese units, the Volunteers seized 50 machineguns and the whole consignment of ammunition.—Kuo Min.

GIRL RECRUITS NEW CHINESE TROOPS.

Saw Fighting During June Campaign.

Peiping, Sept. 15.

Miss Hu Hsiu-kun, a girl student of Liaoning, who as vice-captain of the militia corps at Tawangmiao, Suichung, was in the thick of the fighting in that area in June, arrived here yesterday.

She states that her object in proceeding southward is to recruit among compatriots those who are versed in military affairs, so that their services may be utilized in the operations against the Japanese in the Northeast.—Kuo Min.

GERMAN CLAIMS ARE BITTERLY OPPOSED.

NEIGHBOUR NATIONS IN FEAR OF OLD ENEMY

ARMAMENT PROBLEM

Berlin, Sept. 13.

Despatches received here from every section of the globe show that with the exception of France and Poland, Germany's claim to "fair play" in the matter of armaments is meeting with wide sympathy. British papers show a particularly keen appreciation of what are called Germany's "reasonable claims," while the Italian, Dutch and American press also see justice in her plea.

The only discordant note is struck by the French and Polish press. But in the face of that, it is pointed out here, the German Government is firmly determined not to let itself be converted by the clamour of the French press from its resolution to advocate equal treatment in respect to armament. Political writers declare that if the French threats are intended to block the way for Germany's progress, they will come to naught. The influential and moderate "Koelnische Zeitung," this morning, says that it will become certain press organs abroad to question the von Papen government's authority in this problem because of its lack of parliamentary majority, as in this respect it was quite immaterial who might be at the head of the government, since, on the question of equality of treatment, there was not the slightest difference of opinion amongst the German people or the German parties.

Whoever, so the "Koelnische Zeitung" says, raises with regard to this problem the question of the von Papen government's "certificate of identity," shows his ignorance of German affairs.

Where League Failed.

"Bremen Nachrichten" refers in this connection to the failure of the League of Nations to settle the serious conflict between China and Japan, and to the complete failure of the Disarmament Conference. Nobody, the paper declares, can therefore blame Germany for taking the matter of her security into her own hands.

Meanwhile the outcome of the meeting of the French Cabinet Council, under the chairmanship of President Lebrun himself, was awaited here with the keenest interest, while the fact that Premier Herriot has had a talk with the Polish Ambassador on Germany's aide memoire is regarded here as rather significant. According to despatches from Paris, the Polish Ambassador in this interview assured the French Premier that Poland was determined to offer the utmost resistance to Germany's claim for military equality. This attitude on the part of the Polish government did not, however, cause any surprise in Berlin.—Trans-Ocean Kuo Min.

5TH RED ARMY SURRENDERS.

"Ironsides" Report New Progress.

Nanchang, Sept. 14.

General Wu Chi-wei, Commander of the 90th Division (the "Ironsides"), reports in a telegram to Headquarters, that Kuo Ping-sheng, commander of the 2nd division of the 5th "Red" Army, with two regiments, have surrendered at Lo-an. General Ho Ying-chin, Commander-in-Chief of the Bandit-suppression forces for the Kiangsi-Kwangtung-Fukien border regions, has despatched a message of commendation to General Wu.

The "Reds" under Chu Te and Mao Tse-tung have fled to the Ningtung-Kwangchang region in south-eastern Kiangsi. While assigning a part of his units to suppress the scattered marauders, General Chen Cheng is directing several Government divisions in pursuit of the main outlaw force.—Kuo Min.

"OVERWORKED! BOSH! YOU NEED A DOSE OF PINKETTES"

That drowsy feeling may sometimes be overwork. But often it is a sluggish liver or congested intestines that need attention.

Pinkettes are a great antidote for that tired feeling. When the food tract and digestive organs are congested the blood is contaminated by waste matter, reducing energy and making you feel generally "off-colour." Pinkettes gently but efficiently relieve the system of the offending accumulations, stimulate liver and digestion, restore energy and good spirits.

MAIL REVIEW

"TARZAN, THE APE MAN"—QUEEN'S THEATRE.

It falls to the lot of the film producer to try and please everybody and, failing that, to produce pictures which will appeal to almost everybody. Tarzan, the Ape Man, is a picture which falls within the latter classification. It is a wonderfully produced picture, which might have made almost as good a silent film as it does a talkie because there is so much that is really thrilling that the absence of sound would not be noticed. However, there is no denying that sound, effects and speech do add to the entertainment value of this Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture.

Even those who dislike the far-fetched themes of Edgar Rice Burroughs will find the picture interesting because the jungle scenes are good and some of the wild animal acts really amazing. See Johnny Weissmuller, the world's champion swimmer, wrestle with real live lions and leopards, swim rivers infested with crocodiles, climb upon the backs of elephants and swing dizzily from tree to tree and you will wonder how it is all done. Those who want to know how Tarzan cut his hair and shaved his chin and how he escapes from the clutches of a ferocious lion, which has apparently chewed up his shoulder, without displaying a scratch upon his beautifully proportioned body, must write him a letter.

The picture gives a genuine thrill and the experience of Mr. W. S. Van Dyke, who directed Tarzan Horn, is reflected in the excellently made scenes of typically African jungle. The cast includes Neil Hamilton and C. Aubrey Smith as the intrepid ivory hunters, and Maureen O'Sullivan as the girl who eventually decides to share Tarzan's wild life. Weissmuller makes a very convincing Tarzan and throughout the picture he gives evidence of his amazing athletic prowess.

The picture is now showing at the Queen's Theatre.

"THE W PLAN"—STAR THEATRE.

Graham Seton's great spy drama "The W Plan" presented by British International Pictures, is now showing at the Star Theatre, on its second local release. The exploits of a British army officer who goes over the German lines to investigate the mysterious inverted M plan, culminate in a series of exciting moments. Brian Aherne, Madeleine Carroll, Gibb McLaughlin and Gordon Harker are the principals of a fine cast. Worth seeing!

MAIL REVIEW

"SKIPPY"—MAJESTIC THEATRE.

"Skippy", which features that lovable pair of juveniles, Jackie Cooper and Robert Coogan, stars of "Tom Sawyer" and "Sooky", is now showing at the Majestic Theatre. The acting throughout is of an excellent standard, and both children and grown-ups should make it a point of seeing this film.

MAIL REVIEW

"THE STRANGE CASE OF CLARA DEANE"—KING'S THEATRE.

That clever actress, Wynne Gibson, whose rise in filmdom has been the subject of much praise, is given her starring role in Fox's presentation "The Strange Case of Clara Deane" now playing at the current attraction at the King's Theatre. Miss Gibson is splendid, and the film worth seeing.

In "The Strange Case of Clara Deane" Miss Gibson portrays the three different periods in every woman's life, with marked realism. Her acting earns for her a permanent place in the category of dramatic actresses. Like Nancy Carroll, Wynne Gibson has risen to stellar heights, although misfortune dogged many of the stage shows in which she appeared.

Pat O'Brien, who did exceptionally good work in "The Front Page", pretty Frances Dee and Dudley Digges, all act admirably, and help to hold the interest of this production.

MAIL REVIEW

"YESTERDAY AT PEKING"—ORIENTAL THEATRE.

"Yesterday at Peking" a sound synchronised Chinese film, is drawing crowded houses to the Oriental Theatre, where it is the current attraction.

The film, which is a special production, is most interesting and should appeal to foreigners.

"POWER OF LOVE"—CENTRAL THEATRE.

The latest Chinese film drama "Power of Love" is now showing at the Central Theatre. It was produced by the Star Co., with an all star cast, and has English titles.

"EAST LYNNE"—TAIPEI THEATRE.

Ann Harding's magnificent acting plus a story that has a truly human appeal, feature "East Lynne" now showing at the Taipei Theatre. Clive Brook, as the other lover, and Conrad Nagel, as the old fashioned husband, both give polished performances. Recommended.

MAIL REVIEW

"DRACULA"—GARDEN THEATRE.

"Dracula" which contains a story about vampires that is distinctly in a class by itself, and which is the strangest and most weird motion picture, is the current attraction at the Garden Theatre.

Most of the eerie settings are in the 500 yards old crumbling castle of Count Dracula, splendidly enacted by Bela Lugosi, who created the same part in the stage hit. Helen Chandler and David Manners give the film a welcome relief of romance. Recommended!

British Wireless Improvements.

The exhibition of British wireless apparatus at Olympia was a striking illustration of the growth of one of our youngest electrical industries. Ten years ago the wireless industry hardly existed, but since the advent of broadcasting it has grown with amazing rapidity. In 1923 the National Association of Radio Manufacturers attempted to establish a commercial co-operative organization, and from this Association sprang the present Radio Manufacturers' Association, which is responsible for the present exhibition. Wireless has ceased to be a luxury and now must be regarded as an essential. Providing efficient apparatus at a reasonable price for the millions of British listeners, the Radio manufacturer gives direct employment to some 100,000 workers. The British wireless product in this respect is second to none, and foreign wireless sets in British homes are correspondingly rare. This year's exhibition again shows marked improvement in the performances of the receivers displayed, both in quality and in selectivity, but perhaps the feature most strikingly novel to the average visitor is the compact and workmanlike appearance of the modern set. Gone are the many knobs and projecting valves of the set of some years ago. All is now self-contained and switches are few. In most of the sets the tuning is effected by a single control. Although the battery set user will still find an abundant selection of receivers from which to choose, the all-main receiver is very different from the sets of some years ago.

system, the number is steadily increasing. Three-valve or four-valve sets, mains-driven and complete with in-built loud-speaker, constitute then what may be called the standard, and the listener will find it difficult to choose from the embarrassing selection of these types displayed to-day. Since the performance of a modern wireless receiver is very largely determined by the efficiency of the thermionic valves, the work of the valve manufacturer is of prime importance. In recent years we have had to learn all about the screen-grid valve and the pentode valve and the miraculous amplification which they give. This year we must similarly become informed about the "variable-mu" valve, which gives smooth control of volume and helps towards selectivity. The stabilisation of design in the modern receiver has permitted mass production, which in turn has caused an all-round reduction in prices. The low cost of the receiver at last year's exhibition was widely praised. This year it will be just the same. At Olympia the British wireless manufacturer displayed goods which are thoroughly sound, attractive in appearance, and low in price. It remains for the British listener to support him.

Personal Pars.

A representative of the China Aviation Company, Mr. Lo Kam, has arrived in the Colony from Shanghai. He is said to be negotiating for the services of aviators here.

Miss M. Wallace and Miss D. Wilkins disembarked here this morning from the S. S. Kamo Maru. They will return to Melbourne, from where they started their trip, on the same ship.

Two journalists were among the passengers on the S. S. Kamo Maru which arrived here from Australia this morning. One is Mr. M. T. Green, an American who is en route to Yokohama, and the other Mr. G. Remond, a Frenchman, who is proceeding to stay in the Colony for a short while.

Mr. C. B. B. and Mr. C. B. B. are the two most prominent members of the Hong Kong Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. They are both well-known in the Colony and are both active in the work of the Society.

Correspondence.

S.P.C.A. APPEAL.

[The Editor, "China Mail,"]

Sir,—Will you please be so good as to allow me space in your columns to invite the attention of your readers to the Annual Appeal now being made by the Hong Kong Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and to express the hope that all lovers of animals in the Colony will respond as generously this year as they have done in the past and that many new subscribers will be added to our lists? The policy of the Hong Kong Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is as much directed towards the Promotion of Kindness as it is to the Prevention of Cruelty, and this is effected, firstly by Education (and the results already achieved by this means are an encouragement for pressing on with the work with the utmost vigour), secondly by caution and warning, and lastly, by prosecution.

Insufficient knowledge of the habits and needs of animals is the cause of much of the cruelty to which they are subjected and it is, therefore, highly important to devote as much time and energy as may be possible to humane education, particularly amongst the rising generation.

There are many forms of cruelty, probably inflicted unintentionally, which can be successfully attacked, or even checked, only by educational means.

The Society is always at the disposal of the Public who are requested to co-operate with it by reporting any case of cruelty that may have come to their notice or by offering suggestions to the Committee regarding any matter connected with the activities of the Society and by becoming active members.

The Society is anxious to be in the fore in all movements in the benefit of animals, but the extent of its work is necessarily limited by its financial resources. The present expenses cannot be reduced without seriously curtailing the work now being done.

Interest in the welfare of those friends called by your patronage "dumb" because their ways of speech are not our own does not preclude the fullest care for the needs of human beings.

There is much work to do and we have each an individual responsibility where avoidable suffering can be spared, for one and all can help to secure protection for our animals by supporting the Hong Kong Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

D. DAVIES,

Vice-President.

Hong Kong Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

CHINESE RESERVISTS CONGRATULATED.

Mr. D. L. King Praises Finance Committee.

MANY GET PROMOTION.

About 60 members, their friends and supporters, including members of the Finance Committee, attended a tea party held at the Headquarters of the Chinese Police Reserve Company, 17A, Queen's Road Central, yesterday evening. Opportunity was taken in congratulating members who had won promotion.

Among those present were the Commissioner of the Chinese Company of the local Police Reserve, Hon. Dr. S. W. T'ao, O.B.E., LL.D., Mr. Dudley L. King, D.S.P. (R.), Mr. B. C. Randall and Mr. Sirdar Khan, representing the European and Indian contingents of the Police Reserve. Messrs. Li Yau-tsun, Li Sing-ku, Tang Shiu-kin, Mok Koon-sang, Leung Pat-yue, Wong Hak-king, Kwok Chan, Wong Hoi-tse, Kwok Siu-lai, and Chan Lim-pak.

In welcoming the guests on behalf of the Company, Mr. D. L. King expressed thanks to the Finance Committee, nearly all of whom were present, for the enormous help they had given financially and morally during the past year.

The Hong Kong Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, which has been organized by the Hong Kong Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, is a body of men and women who are interested in the welfare of animals. They are all well-known in the Colony and are all active in the work of the Society.

Malayan Calamity Ruins Planter Fortunes Lost With Rubber's Decline

By G. Cornwallis-West

Penang, Sept. 12.

I have always heard that more nationalities are met with in Malaya than anywhere else, but Malaya must surely run it pretty close. The English and Dutch naturally are the predominant White races.

Danes and a few French are to be met with, and quite a number of Irish, Trinity College, Dublin, being one of the most important nurseries for the Malayan Civil Service.

In addition to the Malaysians themselves, the Chinese are ubiquitous. There is also a sprinkling of Japanese. Here, too, can be seen the swarthy Sikh, Bengalee, Afghan, and Tamil.

When discussing the question of nationalities with an Englishman who has lived for many years in the country, he described Malaya as a country presumably inhabited by Malays, governed by the English, and run entirely for the benefit of the Chinese.

I thought at the time that possibly the heat had caused this somewhat sarcastic remark until I came to examine the situation more closely. I discovered that the beautiful villas, with their well-cared-for gardens blazing with tropical flowers, were not, as I had fondly imagined, the property of wealthy British planters and traders, but belonged to well-to-do Chinese.

Alas! there is very little wealth amongst the White races. One and all are faced with the same calamity, the decline of the price of rubber and tin. The outlook for the latter commodity would certainly appear brighter.

Whereas, in Ceylon, tea is the saving grace of that colony's products, the Malay planter has, unfortunately, nothing to fall back upon. He contemplates with ever increasing gloom the continued fall in the value of that commodity in the production of which so many millions of pounds have been spent, and so many of the best years of his life have been given. His existence has become a nightmare of uncertainty.

Any day, by reason of further cutting down of expenditure, he may receive his dismissal from his London office. I met some of these men, many of gentle birth, and their greatest fear is that it will not be possible to continue their children's education at home.

Briton's Distress.

So dire is the distress that many who have already lost their jobs have been allowed to engage permanently in the Singapore Volunteers, and are paid by a kindly Government sufficient to provide for the bare necessities of life.

In every hotel and public place subscription lists have been opened to provide for unemployed whites. Their tragedy is far greater in the East than it is at home.

Unemployment amongst other races hardly appears to exist. Both the Tamil on the rubber estates and the Chinese coolie in the tin mine are content to work for a fraction of the wage paid them in good times rather than face the expense of returning to their native land.

I travelled from Colombo to Singapore in a Dutch ship, and was fortunate in finding on board a man of the widest experience; he had lived twenty years in the Dutch East Indies and is now managing director of the biggest group of tea and rubber companies controlled in Holland.

Naturally I wanted to know all about the situation and the rubber quota, and asked if what I had been told, "the rubber was true" and whether the native position in Sumatra was the principal obstacle to the Dutch coming into some such scheme. He admitted that it was a certain amount of a case but that the native production had fallen from 1,000,000 tons in 1928 to 700,000 tons in 1931.

could produce 250,000 tons per annum. My informant went on to say:

"Another difficulty has presented itself. Many of the smaller Dutch companies and individual planters, sooner than face complete ruin, have sold their plantations to the Chinese at figures far below their actual value. It will be difficult to persuade these new owners that it is to their advantage to accept a quota, and still more difficult to check their output figures. The Chinese are born smugglers and to prevent the systematic smuggling of rubber out of Sumatra and Java would necessitate the strictest coastal supervision, quite beyond the present capacity of Dutch warships in Eastern waters."

My friend was, however, of the opinion that restriction will eventually come. When I suggested that it was a bit late in the day, with rubber at 2d a lb. and half the planters ruined, and that it should have come sooner, his reply was certainly frank:

"We Dutch and you English have been playing an expensive game of poker, both fearing to put our hands down. You believed that the reserves of our big companies would not last as long as they have, and we believed and hoped the same of yours. So far, both have proved wrong, and that is why I believe something must now be done if the industry is not to be entirely ruined."

Cut-Throat Policy.

I could not refrain from mentioning the conclusion at which any outsider who has studied the question on the spot must arrive. "Here," I said, "are two countries—Great Britain and Holland—who, by reason of events which happened well over a hundred years ago, now possess a certain corner of the globe where two of the most important commodities necessary to civilisation are solely grown—namely, tea and rubber. Instead of mutually saying to the rest of the world, 'We have no wish to bleed you, but only to sell you these commodities at a reasonable profit to ourselves,' they proceed, in the commercial sense, to cut each other's throats."

He agreed with me, and even went further, and said it was childish. He suggested that the chief difficulties lay with the Governments of the countries; each one systematically turned down what the other proposed. "I believe," he added, "that if the planters of both nations had got together the whole position would have been settled months and months ago."

News in Brief.

The health "return" on Thursday showed a clean bill.

The total output of the Kallian Mining Administration's mines for the week ended September 10, amounted to 107,988 metric tons, and the sales during the period to 70,892 metric tons.

NEW SUPER-HOTEL FOR LONDON.

Psychology Plays A Big Part.

GUESTS' WANTS STUDIED

An All-Psychological Hotel, with every one of its 1,000 bedrooms designed and fitted by psychologists, is to be opened in London in October of next year.

Experts have conducted an exhaustive inquiry into the subconscious likes and dislikes of Englishmen and women and visitors from abroad so as to produce the ideal hotel.

Not a move may be made by the architects and engineers, bricklayers, plumbers, carpenters, and painters who are working on the new building unless the psychologists have passed it.

And this is what the hotel will be like:

No Bedroom Radio.
There will be no radio attachments in the bedrooms after the modern American plan, the Psychologist-in-charge told a reporter "and there will be no cafeteria."

"English people do not want radio in their bedrooms, and they prefer to be waited on rather than to serve themselves."

"Guests will be able to regulate the heating according to their nationality. Americans, and some Continental guests like a bedroom temperature ranging as high as 70 degrees, but the average Englishman prefers 55 degrees, or even lower."

"By means of a valve lever, any temperature between the two can be obtained, or the heating can be cut off altogether."

The Englishman's Bath.

"We are now conducting a research into the preferences of women in lighting, so that our electricians may fit the one position in which women are likely to want their dressing-table light."

"We have also found that most people in England take their baths between 8 and 10 in the morning, and between 6 and 8 at night, and consequently the storage capacity of the hot-water containers for the bedroom floors will exceed 60,000 gallons, to provide hot water at any hour."

"People often want a bath in a hurry. So a feature of the engineering contract is that it shall not take longer than a minute to fill any bath."

"Before long men and women may want to fly to the hotel—the Cumberland, which will be opened by Messrs. Lyons, at Marble Arch, W. in October, 1933—so the huge roof will be so laid out that it can later be adapted as an aircraft landing."

London, Yesterday.
The Cardiganshire by-election, caused by the appointment of Mr. Hopkin Morris, Liberal, as a London stipendiary, has resulted:

Aims And Objects Of S.P.C.A.

President J. Russell Delivers Address

BROADCAST ON Z.B.W.

An interesting talk on the aims and objects of the Hong Kong Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was broadcast from Z.B.W. studio last night by Mr. J. Russell, President of the S.P.C.A.

Mr. Russell said:—
In this little talk on the work of our Society, I trust you will retain interest until I am finished. Some of you who may have followed with interest the work that has already been accomplished in our effort to prevent unnecessary suffering to animals. Ordinances have been drawn up, rules and regulations have been posted in market places and where animals are landed from ships and junks, also educative methods are now adopted to induce young people to take an interest in animal welfare by the means of Essay Compositions among the Girl Guides and Boy Scouts. In this work we are taking part with other similar institutions throughout the world, and, as prevention is better the cure, we must all endeavour to do something in the service of humanity and the animal kingdom.

I feel sure that in whatever home my voice may be heard this evening, there you will find a animal or bird as a pet and companion, and how dear they are to you, or your children. Curled up on the mat, Pussy may be found over ready to purr when a friendly hand strokes her beautiful coat, or show a claw at the first presence of danger. I won't say anything about the noise she or he may kick up when on their nightly prow, but they are no worse than many humans when out on a spree. But Pussy in a good home will bring many a smile by her antics, and is often a favourite companion to many who would otherwise feel lonely.

The Faithful Dog.
Then you may have a dog, big or little. What a wonderful pet and how faithful and kind, responding in almost a human way to the mood of its owner. I know one man who felt so lonely when death took away from him one whom he loved that he adopted a little terrier, which is of great comfort to him. This little dog will run to him when he comes and shows by its affection, just that bond of sympathy that means so much to us all. In our home we had a small Japanese poodle, loved by everyone in the house and a great favourite with all the children. How amusing it is to see the kiddies play with a dog. They will dress it up and teach it all manner of tricks. The dog responds to their play by lying quiet, and trying its best to act the part. If any of your children have been following the pictures of "Freckles" in the "Telegraph," I am sure you have learned how easy it is to teach your dog many interesting things.

Intelligence of Animals.
The intelligence of animals when kindly treated will amaze you, and repay you for any little effort on your part, and as you know from your books and possibly from your experience, the wonderful part many animals have played in saving life, both from fire and from drowning. That is why we, on our part, should at all times seek to be kind to them, devotion of a dog and its faithfulness to its owner, in many cases might bring the blush of shame to many of our own class. That is why, friends, Societies such as the S.P.C.A. find so many willing helpers, and who by their energy keep alive the bond of sympathy and love to all of God's creatures.

My listeners to-night, I broadcast this appeal to you, in order that we may have your help in assisting the Local Society to further the progress of its work in relieving from needless pain and suffering our friends of the animal kingdom. The spread of societies such as ours make a real progress in the life of a community, because we do not only measure our progress in stone, and signs of material wealth. Our greatest advance is measured in the extent of our boundless love.

Lack of Facilities.
In making this appeal for your support, I have no doubt many of my hearers will say, what have we as a Society done in your district? You may think of cases wherein no action has been taken, and therefore you may have lost interest in the movement. I can only repeat that we are to a large extent limited in our work, due to lack of facilities, and for financial reasons. It is only possible to maintain the services of two Inspectors, one of whom must devote a good deal of his time to the supervision of the Dogs Home, and the other to patrolling the markets, etc. Therefore there are many cases of needless and thoughtless cruelty, and we often regret that quick action is not taken by the parties present to notify the Police instead of blaming the Society. We cannot always move in the matter, unless we have direct evidence, and we want your co-operation and help.

Again our Inspectors are handicapped, having no official authority. This I may say we are trying to remedy by asking the Government to grant to our Inspectors provisional authority by virtue of their office. At the same time we are greatly indebted to the members of the Police for their readiness to help our work, not alone in prosecuting, but also in helping to educate those who are carelessly ignorant of humane laws.

Dogs' Home Position.
With reference to our Home for Dogs, and there is a good deal of misapprehension on the part of the Public regarding the duties and working of this establishment. Many people having a sick dog and desirous of having it treated, naturally, I say this advisedly, turn to our home for advice, and when that cannot be obtained they condemn the Society. I will explain why we are almost helpless in most cases. First, our place at Waterloo Road, is too small to accommodate the number of dogs that friends would wish us to keep for them, or try to cure of some illness, and I am of the opinion, this should be an essential part of our activities, because in my experience the public have no idea where to procure the necessary attention required by an animal in pain, and while our Inspector is most willing at all times to be of service he has not the qualifications of a Veterinary Surgeon.

We are actively engaged at present in having this state of affairs remedied, and with the provision of new homes our endeavour will be to have the service of a qualified man to advise. We are in the meantime prepared to receive unwanted dogs and to maintain them until such time as an owner can be found for them, also if an animal is beyond hope of recovery to painlessly destroy it. These friends are our position, and we sent but with your help and the help of the Government we hope in the near future to have suitable places where animals can be treated and maintained during the absence of their owners.

New Site For Home?
Negotiations are at present proceeding for the acquisition of ground in Kowloon and in Hong Kong in order to build suitable homes. I cannot say more on this subject at present other than seek your solidarity and help. There is a great deal of work to be done, and we need your immediate assistance. It may not be a great deal, but it may be the difference between success and failure.

wheels are going round.

To my Roman Catholic friends make a special appeal as very soon they will celebrate St. Francis Day, which falls on October 4.

St. Francis Day brings to memory one who left a gay life of youthful pleasure to devote himself to the little ones of the earth who were in pain and sorrow—little ones, human and otherwise.

St. Francis, the Patron Saint of all animals, devoted his life to the lives of the most humble of creatures. If we show our love to animals we will of necessity show our love to all.

One may truly say the hungry and the needy should come first, and that protection for children should come before that of protection to animals; with this our Society agrees, and in all our ranks where love of animals exist there you will also find those who are most willing workers in the cause of suffering humanity.

Love is the greatest of all emotions, and it is the greatest of all emotions that should be the basis of our life.

Let us all strive to be more loving to all God's creatures, and let us all strive to be more loving to all God's creatures.

"SEPARATIST" PLOT IN NORTH CHINA.

Japanese Allegedly Behind Move.

Peiping, Sept. 16.
Startling reports of the revival of Japanese plots to foment and organize a separatist movement in north China with a view towards the establishment of an independent North China Republic have been received from usually reliable sources.

According to the reports, the Japanese political secret service has sent to China a total of twenty-eight trained agents to organize a rebellion among bandits, political malcontents, local rowdies and other dregs of the community. The new movement is to have Peiping and Tientsin as its base of operations.

The movement will aim at the establishment of a sister republic to Manchukuo, to be known as the "Independent Republic of North China." In the event of the attempt turning out successful, a defensive and offensive military alliance will be formed between Japan, Manchukuo and the new puppet state against China Proper and Soviet Russia. The reports also suggest that the purpose of the plot is not merely to detach north China from the Chinese Republic but also to divert the attention of the world from Manchuria and to vindicate the Japanese contention that the people in Manchuria and north China are acting "spontaneously" against the established national regime.—Kuo Min.

LEAGUE EXAMINES GRAN CHACO WAR.

Sub-Committee Named To Investigate.

Geneva, Yesterday.
The League of Nations Council met at 11.30 a.m. to-day under the presidency of Mr. Eamon de Valera, Prime Minister of the Irish Free State. The preliminary proceedings will be private.

The Council agenda to-day did not include the Chinese appeal on the subject of Manchuria. The Council of the League has declined to appoint a sub-committee of three to examine means of solving the Bolivia-Paraguay dispute. Herr Hambro (Norway) stated that so many Powers were in arrears with their contributions to the League that there would probably be a crisis next year, unless the position were remedied.—Reuter.

ARSENAL, last year's Cup finalists, are at home to Everton, the League Champions, at Highbury, to-day and a great duel is expected between Dixie Dean and Parker, the Veteran Arsenal skipper. The London side are fourth in the table while Everton are three points in arrears.

Portsmouth, Aston Villa, West Bromwich Albion and Newcastle United, the Cup holders, are the only undefeated clubs in the premier league and Pompey are meeting the Villa to-day in what promises to be the tit bit of an interesting programme. Newcastle visit Chelsea and the Throates entertain Leeds United.

Bradford City is the only side in the Second Division to have an unbeaten record and they are visiting Notts County and should be able to uphold their 100 per cent. In the Third Division (South) Brentford and Reading will be defending unbeaten records against Bristol and Newport on away grounds. In the Northern section Gateshead and Southport are opposing Halifax and Rochdale, and both teams should maintain their record.

Motherwell, the only unbeaten team in the Scottish League, are at home to Greenock Morton while the Rangers visit Cowdenbeath and the Celtic entertain Kilmarnock.

LORD BURGHLEY ON THE OLYMPIC GAMES

"I AM QUITE SATISFIED."

The British Olympic Games team, captained by Lord Burghley, arrived at Southampton on August 30, from America in the Empress of Britain.

Lord Burghley said that he was quite satisfied with the show put up by the British men in the Games at Los Angeles.

"It was very satisfactory on the whole," he said.

"We had nineteen athletes. Then Thomas and Reed broke down.

"With the seventeen remaining we got twelve in the first six, and we got two-sevenths.

"Every single man, except one, got through to some final or other, and, after all, we picked our men on their ability to reach finals."

"About all those records?" he was asked.

"It was a very fast track made of peat and clay," explained Lord Burghley, "and they had put a ten-ton roller on it. You can only have a track like that in a country where it does not rain. If it does rain, then the track must be like a mud-heap."

"I suppose I am about the oldest competitor who has ever won an Olympic Championship," said Lord Burghley. "I hope I won't be too old to compete in 1936."

KOWLOON RUGBY.

The Kowloon Rugby Club is to play a practice seven-a-side game at King's Park this afternoon at 5.15 o'clock. The teams will be selected from the following:—

E. E. Cogan, A. Easterbrook, S. MacNider, A. W. Torrie, T. Whitley, J. J. Ferguson, A. Peart, J. Watson, M. Barrow, C. Hopkins, E. Brokenshire, R. Maynard, and W. Kerr.

Walking on the deck as the liner drew near Southampton were Tom Green, who won the fifty kilometre walk, and Tom Hampson, who pulled off the 800 metres run.

A great welcome awaited Green, who works in the locomotive department of the Southern Railway at Eastleigh, near Southampton.

KID CHOCOLATE FORTUNATE.

Gains Unpopular Points Decision.

New York, Sept. 15.

Kid Chocolate, light-weight champion of the world, last night decided Frank Fariello, the rugged Italian New Yorker, in a torrid six round main attraction here.

The decision was loudly booed by the audience as Fariello got to Chocolate in the last round of the bout, and punished him badly, flooring him for a count early in the round. Chocolate was in bad shape towards the latter stages of the bout, the New York battler pounding away at him with terrific punches. The Cuban has not encountered such stiff opposition in his last few bouts and was plainly in a quandary as to how to cope with his opponent's punches. His ring experience helped him out considerably as he went into a long and protracted clinch which seemingly saved him from taking the long count.

CLUB "A" WIN BY THREE GOALS.

Strong Team Beat Y.M.C.A.

KILBEE'S "HAT TRICK."

Playing in heavy rain throughout the game a strong Hong Kong Hockey Club "A" eleven defeated the Y.M.C.A. second eleven by three goals to nil at King's Park yesterday.

The driving rain and heavy state of the ground greatly handicapped the players, but exchanges were always of an exciting nature. The Y.M.C.A. lacked combination at forward, but their defence played very creditably. Owen again being the most prominent player. Bates, who is a regular first eleven man, took the place of E. F. Selk at centre-half, and played a useful all-round game.

Dale, the Club skipper, played a hard game throughout and held the "Y" forwards well in check, and in this respect Henry lent valuable assistance. Watts at left-half for the "Y" was also seen to advantage on occasion, but his aptitude for hanging on to the ball too long proved his undoing.

"Y" TEAM FOR TO-DAY.

The following will represent the Y.M.C.A. "A" eleven against the Royal Army Service Corps at King's Park at 4.30 p.m. to-day: V. M. Benwell; W. H. Stonell, E. O. Murphy (captain); G. A. Nicholls; G. H. Owen, S. A. Sweet; L. W. Macey, R. Dormer, H. Sommers, R. Baldwin and G. Ellis. Referee: A. C. Jeffries.

Hong Kong Ladies' And The Caer Clark Cup

Champions May Enter Two Teams This Year

CREDIT BALANCE OF $392.40

GUESTS OF MRS. SOUTHERN AT GOVERNMENT HOUSE ON OCTOBER 4.

The running of a second eleven in the Caer Clark Cup hockey competition was suggested at the sixth annual general meeting of the Hong Kong Ladies' Hockey Club held at Lane, Crawford's yesterday afternoon; Miss E. M. Gray presiding. Although the suggestion was approved by the Committee, no definite decision was reached.

Miss Gray resigned the captaincy, but owing to the insistence of those members present accepted the post for this season, with Miss J. T. C. Smalley as vice-captain. Miss Gray will be going home on leave early in March.

It was announced that the Club were guests to Mrs. W. T. Southern, the wife of H.E. the O.A.G. at a lawn bowls party to be given at Government House on Tuesday, October 4, at 4 p.m.

The report for the year, prepared by Mrs. P. M. Harrop, Hon. Secretary, and approved by the meeting, read as follows:

ANNUAL REPORT.

Your Committee has pleasure in presenting its report and statement of accounts for the season ending June 30, 1932.

The accounts show that the credit balance of $164.23 has been increased to $392.40.

During the season fourteen new members joined the Club, nine members resigned, owing to their having left the Colony, while nine members have been transferred to the absent members list.

The Club again wishes to place on record their appreciation for the kindness shown by the following Clubs for the loan of their grounds during the season. The Hong Kong Area South China Command, The Hong Kong Hockey Club, the Y.M.C.A. and the Royal Naval Recreation Club.

For the third year in succession the Club won the Caer Clark Cup, being successful in all their league games with the exception of one when they drew with the Club de Recreio. This is the second year in succession that we have played in the league matches without the loss of a game. The success has been largely due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Ormerod, who, we regret, has left the Colony. We have, however, been fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Sanderson.

The season closed with a match against the Rest of the League in which the Club were successful by winning 4-0. At the conclusion of this game our President, Mrs. Southern, in the absence of Mr. Caer Clark, presented us with the Cup and at the same time kindly offered to present a Runners Cup in the league, which is now held by St. Andrews.

The fourth annual dance was held at Lane, Crawford's on the 8th January and proved as popular as ever. As shown from the statement of accounts the Club made a profit of $63.65, in this connection thanks are due to Mr. D. M. Goodall. Thanks are also due to the members of the "Dance Committee" in making the dance a success.

USE OF GROUNDS.

Miss Gray announced that the Club had been given the use of the Army ground at Sookmoo on every Tuesday, after 5 p.m. and Saturday afternoon, and the Navy ground at Happy Valley on Saturday afternoon, from 3 to 4.15 p.m. In connection with the latter only rubber or rope shoes are to be worn and no practice will be allowed in the shooting areas.

Referring to the substantial credit balance of $392.40 Miss Gray mentioned that that amount was earned owing to the fact that the Club were not fortunate in not having to pay fees for playing fields. What they do pay for is for the use of the grounds, which they have to pay for.

The following officers were elected for the current season:—

President: Mrs. W. T. Southern. Captain: Miss E. M. Gray. Vice-Captain: Miss J. T. C. Smalley.

Hon. Secretary: Mrs. P. M. Harrop. Asst. Hon. Secretary: Miss E. O'Hagan.

Hon. Treasurer: Miss E. Bell. Committee: Misses E. Bonnar, A. Owen Hughes, C. Ferguson. Selection Committee: Captain, Vice-Captain, Misses M. Bird and E. Blackburn, and Mr. Sanderson, R.A.O.C.

Those present were: Miss E. Gray, Mrs. P. M. Harrop, Miss E. O'Hagan, Misses J. Smalley, E. R. Bell, M. Bird, E. Blackburn, V. Blackburn, E. Bonnar, S. Browning, N. Cooper, J. Dalziel, C. Ferguson, and Mrs. W. T. Southern.

CANTON READER'S ENTHUSIASM OVER INTERPORT SOCCER

(To the Editor, "China Mail.") Dear Sir,—Having recently heard that, due to the present political changes in Shanghai, the annual Interport Soccer matches, previously arranged to take place in Shanghai during the coming Chinese New Year, have been cancelled, I wonder whether arrangements could be made for the Northern team to come down South instead. I do not think that the Shanghai team will object to such a proposal if there is a chance of anything materializing.

I am sure that such an arrangement would be heartily greeted by both the players and fans of the game, and I think that they, as myself, will think it a great pity if no effort is made to stage the coming season's "Battle of Ports." If it is final that this year's Interport will not take place, it is almost a certainty that the season will lack that spark of interest which would otherwise be present. This, it must be remembered, will mean smaller gate-receipts, and most important of all, a lower standard of play. I would therefore be much obliged if the H.K. F. A. would kindly consider my suggestion.

Yours etc.,

"Go Lo."

Canton, Sept. 22.

Hongkong is sending a soccer side up to Shanghai in November and the northern port are sending a team to Hongkong in February.

WHILE JACK PETERSEN IS AT SEA—

Doyle And Pettifer Could Test Their Claims.

BOXING GIANTS.

By B. BENNISON.

JACK PETERSEN, the British champion, has set out for South America as a member of a ship's crew for his three-months sea trip.

"The experience," he says, "will not be new. Neither will it be in the nature of a holiday. But it will be after my own heart. If I were not a fighter I would be a sailor. I am of sea-faring stock. It has been suggested that it would perhaps be all to the good if I fought at one or other of the places of call; but, although I am itching to fight, I have decided not to put on a glove until I am back home. I am to take no fighting kit with me. My father has seen to that."

"For three months I shall be a very-day sailor, and for that time it is perhaps as well that I should forget the ring entirely. I am warned to keep my recently mended nose from possible trouble as if it were still terribly troublesome. It is not likely to go back on me."

"So far as may be judged, the operation has been completely successful, and there is not the least fear that I will have again to give myself over to the specialists."

"It is no physical defect that has called for a halt. We had come to a common agreement that, so soon as I had won the heavy-weight championship I should take a long sea voyage; and that by September, when I shall be 21 years of age, I should, physically, be all that a full-grown man might be."

Jack Petersen, who must be fired of his ambition to win the Irishman's "knock-out" victories would count for little. It is there a promoter willing to stage a contest between these two young men, let them meet by all means."

Kowloon Cricket Club Opening Ceremony

Twelve Interport Cricketers In First Game Of Season

RETURN OF TOM HAYWARD

K.C.C. BOWLERS TO PLAY AGAINST COMBINED HONG KONG TEAM.

The 1932-33 cricket season will be ushered in at the Kowloon Cricket Club this afternoon when Mr. H. R. B. Hancock, hero of many an Interport, will captain a representative Hong Kong XI against the K.C.C. An excellent game should be the outcome as there are two very strong elevens on view. The following are the two teams:

Kowloon Cricket Club:—J. C. Lyal (captain), F. Goodwin, E. C. Fincher, E. F. Fincher, G. C. Burnett, A. T. Lay, N. A. E. Mackay, J. Hunter, F. S. W. Smith, W. C. Hung and F. E. Skinner.

Mr. Hancock's XI:—H. R. B. Hancock (captain), A. W. Hayward, E. J. R. Mitchell, J. E. Richardson, G. R. Sayer, Lt. Comdr. J. D. Southern, R.N., Lt. A. C. Hamilton, S. W. B., F. D. Pereira, A. R. Minu, E. Zimmern and I. McInnes.

BOWLING WEAKNESS. The Kowloon team is at full strength with the exception of I. McInnes, who is playing for the visiting team. The side possesses four Interporters in Goodwin, E. F. Fincher, E. C. Fincher and Burnett while Lyal, Mackay, Hunter, and Hung have all been on the verge of Interport recognition.

It is a good all-round side with a slight bowling weakness. Goodwin has, however, shown magnificent form at the nets and should be in fine form on a good wicket to-day.

The introduction of Lay into the side has considerably strengthened the batting. Lay is one of the best batsmen that Fettes College has produced. The form of F. S. W. Smith will be watched with interest after his great season last year. If he reveals the form which enabled him to score three centuries last year he may well partner E. C. Fincher as an opening batsman for the League season. Hung is looking forward to a better season than last year and has shown promising form in the nets during the week.

EIGHT INTERPORTERS. The visiting side includes eight Interporters, Zimmern, McInnes and Southern being the only players not to have gained recognition. The return of Tom Hayward will be the feature of the match. His Interport batting record has been a great one and only an attack of sciatica kept him out of the field last season. Eric Mitchell, the victorious Hong Kong captain, has been practising for the occasion and is looking forward to a good season. Richardson, Sayer, Hamilton and Minu, all members of Mitchell's winning team in Shanghai will be out to vindicate their reputations, while Southern is in practice after a series of matches in Shanghai and the North.

PEREIRA AND MINU. Zimmern, who will again captain the Craigengower side in their second assault on the Championship is keeping wicket and should collect a useful score if he allows himself to settle down before attempting to hit the bowling. Pereira will be the visitors' speed merchant and will be given every support by Minu, who gave Hong Kong such a meritorious win over Shanghai last May.

The game should provide a very even struggle with Hancock's XI the favourites, should the game reach a definite conclusion.

AFTERNOON'S PROGRAMME. The cricket match will commence at 2 p.m. and the Bowls match between the Kowloon Cricket Club and a Combined team, which will include a rink from Government House, will commence at 3 p.m.

The opening ceremony will be performed by Mrs. W. T. Southern at 4.30 p.m. from the North entrance, Mr. R. E. Lindsell, President of the K. C. C. will then give a short speech inviting the visitors to drink to the success of the Club.

Wilde of his country. It would not be long odds against his knocking out Garner but the mountainous Italian and the young German are enormously different propositions. And, to me, it would be surprising if Walker disposed of Schmeling, who, if not such an artist, has shown himself to be proof against serious punishment.

Schmeling's excuse for not coming to London is that "he is determined to be world's champion, on nothing but the only way to recapturing the title is by compelling Sharkey to fight him again." He will discover that Walker is far from being a one-day mark. On the contrary, he will find that the old middle-weight champion is a very different proposition from the one he met in New York.

Walker, who must be fired of his ambition to win the Irishman's "knock-out" victories would count for little. It is there a promoter willing to stage a contest between these two young men, let them meet by all means."

The WENDY HUT.

Long Ago Stories The Ordeal Of Alfred

When Alfred was five years old, the Norman lord took him into his castle as his page. Alfred's Saxon father did not like his son being brought up as a Norman, but the Lord had taken a fancy to Alfred, so there was nothing to say.

At first Alfred waited upon the Lady Maud, his master's wife. She beat him with her little whip when his hands were too dirty to untangle her embroidery wool, and she threw him into the moat one day the Norman and were always plotting to kill him. The easiest way was to put poison in his wine!

Now, each time a Lord's cup was filled, it was necessary for somebody to drink from it first in order to make sure that it contained no poison. But Alfred was young, and the wine soon went to his head and sent him reeling about the hall, and so the Lord often drank without having his wine tasted.

Then came the terrible day when he grasped the edge of the table, cried out, and fell back unconscious.

Amid scenes of confusion, Alfred was flung into the dungeon and left for three days with only dirty water to drink. Being the only Saxon in the household, the boy was accused of having been bribed to put poison in the wine. Fortunately for him, his master recovered, and ordered his page to be brought before him to be judged. Looking pale and ill, the Lord sat in the hall and told the kneeling lad that his punishment was death.

"I did not do it!" cried Alfred. "I would give my life for my lord, but not as a punishment! Try me by the Ordeal of my fathers, and when I am proved innocent I will rush into battle and be killed for my lord's sake."

Because the nobleman loved Alfred, he commanded him to undergo the Ordeal of the Cross. The boy was blindfolded and two pieces of wood were held out to him; one was marked with a cross, the other was not. Alfred prayed that he might stretch out his hand and touch the cross, which would prove him innocent. If he touched the other piece of wood, it was a sign that he was guilty, and nothing could save him.

Alfred touched the cross! And, in his joy, his master kissed him and called him his dear son.

Now Alfred had a quick mind, he was strong and brave, and so, by the time he was fourteen, he was the Norman Lord's favourite companion. He used to treasure up all the funny stories he heard, and tell them to his master as he stood behind his chair at dinner to see that his silver tankard was never empty. The Lady Maud also was fond of Alfred, and he had jewels and fine clothes to wear.

Many people envied Alfred, and whispered that the Lord would give him an estate when he was twenty-one if he fought well in battle. But many other people hated

THE TINKITES' TOYSHOP.

How To Make A Flying Toy.

Here is an interesting toy which is very easy to make. The chief parts are a shaped strip of fairly stout tin, an empty cotton reel, and an ordinary bradawl.

Obtain a strip of tin six inches long and about two inches wide—part of an old tin can will answer the purpose. Mark out the shape to the dimensions given in diagram A, then cut out the propeller-shaped piece with an old pair of scissors.

In the centre of the metal strip make a hole one-eighth of an inch in diameter, and on each side of this make another hole a little smaller. The two smaller holes should be three-quarters of an inch apart. With a pair of pincers, bend each tip B.B. on the dotted lines, so that they slope downwards at an angle, as indicated in the first diagram, and then round off the corners with a file.

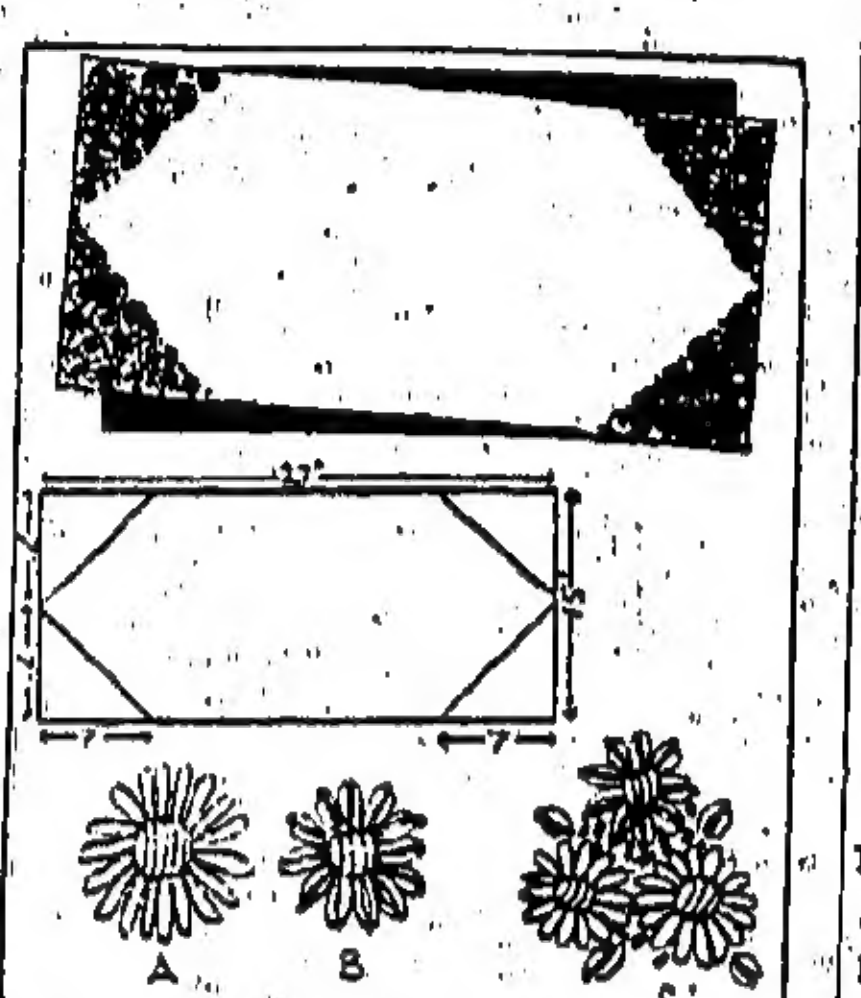

Now take the cotton reel and, on each side of the central hole, hammer in a used gramophone needle so that the needles coincide with the two small holes in the tin strip. The ends of the driving pegs thus formed should project a quarter of an inch from the end of the reel.

WENDY'S LITTLE NEEDLEWOMEN.

A Runner For Your Dressing Table.

Tink has made a lovely runner for Wendy's dressing-table, and we think you would like to make one too—either for yourself, or as a present for a friend.

You will need about three-quarters of a yard of natural crash, fifteen inches wide, and you can use up all our odd lengths of corners.

That dressing-table runner Tink made for Wendy! You can make one like it if you read Dressmaker's instructions.

Laurel wool for the trimming. If you haven't any wool, get penny skeins of different colours, and one of black as well.

Turn in narrow hems along each end of the crash; you can have the selvages as they are. Now mark the centre of each hem, measure seven inches along each selvage, and rule lines from the centre mark to these seven-inch marks, so that there will be two triangles on each edge of the runner. The diagram explains exactly what I mean.

Take a penny and a ha'penny, lay these in the triangles, and pencil round them, moving the coins about, and pencilling round, until the triangles are filled in.

Now you are ready to work the flowers, using the different circles as guides. Diagrams A and B show the two ways of doing the embroidery—the first with stroke-stitches, the second with lazy-daisy stitches. Gives some of the flowers orange satin-stitch centres, and some pale yellow. Single green lazy-daisy stitches here and there will suggest leaves. When you've finished all the flowers, work little single-stitches in black wool all over the background, filling in the spaces between, as shown in diagram C.

Press the embroidery carefully, and the runner is ready to grace your own or a friend's dressing-table.

POLISHING THE MOON.

"With mops and pails and brushes across the sky!"

Oh, doesn't the Moon look lovely and bright, hanging up there in the sky, all night?

Someone, I'm sure, has a VERY hard time, keeping it polished, and making it shine!

It isn't so bad when it's nice and new—

There's only a very small bit to do. One or two good little hard-working Sprites

Can do the job quickly on new-moon-nights!

But when it is full, and looks big and round, it takes heaps of goblins, or so I've found;

And oh! if you're lucky, you'll see them fly,

With mops, pails and brushes, across the sky;

OUR SWEET MAKING CORNER NOUGAT.

Here is a nice sweet you can make for a party, or for the sweet-stall of your sale of work. If you make it for the sale of work, you must, of course, increase the quantities of ingredients, but be careful to keep to the same proportions.

Blanch a quarter-pound sweet almonds by putting them into hot water for a minute or two, then removing their skins. Cut the nuts into very thin slices, and beat them thoroughly into half a pound of icing sugar. Beat the whites of two eggs, mix this froth into the flavoured vanilla essence and almonds and sugar, adding also about two ounces of plain chocolate (melted in a cup standing in a pan of boiling water). Blend all these thoroughly with a wooden spoon until you have a stiff paste. Cover the bottom of a tin with rice-paper, and turn the mixture on to it, to the depth of about one inch. Dip a knife into boiling water and press down and smooth the top of the sweet, then cover it with another sheet of rice paper. Leave in a warm place to dry slowly. When set, cut the nougat into small bars. If for sale, wrap each bar in grease-proof paper.

COME TO CHICAGO.

Although many strange things have been said about Chicago, the city still remains a very wonderful place indeed, well worth studying among the great cities of the world.

Situated in the State of Illinois, it is nearly a thousand miles from New York and is the greatest railway centre in America. With its suburbs, Chicago stretches along the shores of Lake Michigan about 40 miles, and three lakes—Calumet, Hyde and part of Wolfe lie actually within the city limits.

ROTHESAY DOCK CLOSED.

Plant To Be Kept Efficient.

Rothsay Dock, one of the biggest on the Clyde, is to be closed temporarily.
The decision was reached at a meeting of the Clyde Navigation Trustees.

Mr. William Cuthbert (chairman) said that the depression in trade in the West of Scotland was such that the trustees were compelled to close the dock.

Their imports of iron ore and limestone, he said, had been seriously reduced and there had also been a falling off in coal shipments.
Rothsay Dock was a part of the harbour where that work was done, and for a considerable period it had not been anything like fully employed.

The chairman added that they hoped it would not be long before there was such an improvement in trade as to justify the reopening of the dock. The plant and machinery would be kept in a proper state of repair and efficiency.

Rothsay Dock which was opened in 1907, has quays and railway sidings occupying 75 acres. The appliances for the discharge of mineral cargoes are electrically operated. An official of the trust said after the meeting that about 200 men, mostly dockers, would be affected by the decision.

The trustees also resolved that a discount of 10 per cent. shall be granted for the use of graving docks for the first three tides, and that the rate for spoolwood (wood used for making bobbins for thread) be reduced from 1s. 4d. to 6d. per ton on imports of 1,200 tons and over in one vessel.

RACE SELECTIONS FOR TO-DAY.

Chance for Punters.

The sixth event on the card, the Clear Water Handicap includes many distinguished entries, and Indiana and Daylight Eve are both likely to be well supported, especially the latter, who covered a mile in 2.02 1/5 in the early part of the year. Carrying 140 pounds, it looks a potential winner over five furlongs.

In the other events, where larger fields have been received, surprises are not unlikely, and the knowing punter is likely to clean up in no uncertain fashion.

FAIR TO SHOWERY.

To-day's weather report
from the Royal Observatory states—

Pressure is highest to the N. of Hokkaido. A weak anti-cyclone remains to the N. of the Yangtze, and a depression is situated over Tongking.
Forecast: E. E. of variable winds, moderate, fair to showery.

MARTIAL LAW STOPS SHANGHAI RIOTS.

The great danger, authorities felt, was in the likelihood of clashes between the strikers and Japanese bluejacket patrols.
Hongkew, where thousands of Japanese reside, and where huge Japanese godowns and cotton plants are located, would be a mark for any anti-Japanese gang and the temper of the bluejackets would tolerate no act of violence where Japanese property was concerned, it was feared. These bluejackets keep a jealous eye on the property of their nationals.
Large patrols of police, in consequence, were mustered for duty in the threatened area and any sign of disorder was promptly eradicated.

Union Officers Attacked.

Six officers appointed by the Kuomintang to reorganise the Wharf Workers' Union, were seriously injured by wharf coolies, armed with axes and clubs, when they were about to assume their duties yesterday. Once again the hand of Red agitators is seen in this outburst of feeling.

There are new secret organisations springing up in Shanghai, too, against which the older established "Bloody Groups" have given warning. The Blood and Soul Corps for the extermination of traitors warns the public not to be misled by treacherous and unscrupulous men who are trying to deceive society by the formation of illicit enterprises under the cloak of patriotism, but which are really for purposes of exacting blackmail from merchants and others.

GARRISON FALLS.

Army under General Wang Telin, succeeded in entering Kirin city, provincial capital of Kirin, on the night of September 14,
according to a delayed message,
says the Kuo Min News Agency.

Volunteers under Keng Chi-chou,
5,000 strong stormed the Taisien-men (Great Western Gate) of Shen-yang (Mukden) on September 20 and clashed with the enemy. Volunteers in eastern Liaoning Tang Shu-wu are also harassing the Japanese at Fushun, Peitaying
(North barracks) and Siling.

Heavy Fighting.

Volunteers have occupied Ninguta on the Chinese Eastern Railway.
Fighting is raging in this sector between the Volunteers and the Japanese brigade under Major-General Yoda. Traffic on the Shenyang (Mukden)-Hallung Railway is still suspended. Another Volunteer unit is attacking Itung city, about 60 miles south of Changchun.

Volunteers under Sun Kuo-hau have again raided Sui-chung, southern Liaoning, with the assistance of 400 men from the militia corps of Chenchiatun, which town Japanese airplanes recently bombarded. A sharp engagement ensued during the night but the Chinese withdrew to Lutschoku in the morning. About 400 Japanese soldiers, equipped with 16 machine guns, 12 field guns and 20 motor trucks launched a counter-attack on the Volunteers.

SHANSI TROOPS ARE BOUND BY LOYALTY

Men At Disposal Of Nanking Chiefs.

NORTHERNERS STAND BY.

Hankow, Sept. 16.

General Chang Chun, who had recently held, on behalf of General Chiang Kai-shek, a number of conferences with northern and Shansi military commanders, arrived here from Shihchiachung yesterday evening by the Peiping-Hankow Railway.

Interviewed following his arrival, General Chang said that both the northern and Shansi generals have pledged implicit obedience to the Central Government and President Chiang Kai-shek. He said that the Peiping branch of the Central Military Affairs Commission has already begun to function. He also confirmed the report that General Chang Hsueh-liang is shortly paying a visit to Hankow to confer with General Chiang Kai-shek regarding the situation in north China.

Questioned with reference to the Peiping Palace Museum, he said that the present complications have arisen chiefly because of some mistakes in procedure. He had however declined appointment as Acting President of the Board of Directors of the said Museum, and was therefore unable to shed much light on the matter.—Kuo Min.

STRIKE NEARER SETTLEMENT AS WAGES ARE SET.

Major Issues Settled.

London, To-day.
The cotton dispute is now regarded as virtually ended, although the question of reinstatement of those employees who left work before the strike was called, is still outstanding.

An agreement was reached yesterday on the major issues in the negotiations which have been proceeding at Manchester between representatives of the employers and the employees, with the assistance of the Ministry of Labour official, Mr. Leggett.

The wages agreement was approved and confirmed at the joint conference of both sides, and involved a reduction of about 8 1/2 per cent. of the earnings of the general body of workers. In order to prevent disorganisation from individual action, the employers have issued circulars requesting mills not to re-open until they receive instructions to do so.—British Wireless Service.

NEW YACHT IN HARBOUR.

An experimental Diesel fishing
yacht, belonging to the Formosan Government, arrived in the harbour yesterday on her maiden trip.
Smartly painted with a white hull and dark funnel, the vessel has caused much comment among the ferry passengers.
